

A watercolor illustration of a night landscape. The sky is a mix of dark blue, teal, and yellow, with numerous white stars and a large, bright full moon in the upper right corner. Below the sky are several layers of mountains, rendered in shades of purple, blue, and green, creating a sense of depth and mist. In the foreground, there are dark, silhouetted evergreen trees. The overall style is soft and artistic.

Everything we hear is an opinion, not fact. Everything we see is a perspective, not truth.

-Marcus Aurelius
